GET READY FOR FACETS 2025

The 31st FACETS Gem and Jewellery Show, organised by the Sri Lanka Gem and Jewellery Association (SLGJA) - in partnership with the National Gem and Jewellery Authority (NGJA), will open its doors between 4th and 6th January 2025 at the Cinnamon Grand, Colombo.

Kicking off the new year, FACETS 2025 has become a highly anticipated event within the industry, bringing together prominent gemstone and jewellery traders, manufacturers, lapidaries and collectors from around the world,. Over the years, FACETS has been a vibrant celebration of Sri Lanka's long history and reputation as a preeminent source country, home to more than 75 varieties of coloured gemstones. Highlighting local jewellers and traders, the show looks to bring Sri Lankan craftsmanship to the spotlight with its unique blend of rich tradition and innovative modernity.

FACETS Sri Lanka 2025 will be host to entrepreneurs from numerous local industry hot spots such as Ratnapura, Elahara, Beruwala, Ehiliyagoda, Galle, Pelmadulla, Kahawatta and Colombo - all excited to display the finest gems and jewellery the country has to offer. Acting as a platform for industry leaders to collaborate and connect with professionals from around the world, FACETS hopes to contribute to driving the Sri Lankan industry towards its goal of achieving USD 1 billion in exports and stimulate international collaboration throughout the gemstone and tourism industries, while providing its buyers and guests with a highly-curated VIP experience.

The event will not only highlight the brilliance of Sri Lankan sapphires and coloured gemstones but will act as a window into the nation's diverse culture and multi-faceted heritage, offering visitors first-hand insights into the history of the nation's mining and cutting practices through the exclusive Mine Tour.

This years show is set to offer visitors unparalleled opportunities for networking and collaboration as well. Key events of FACETS Sri Lanka 2025 include the elegant Sapphire Night, a celebration of the iconic Ceylon Sapphire, and the Women's Power Breakfast, dedicated to inspiring and celebrating women leaders in the industry. Other unique experiences offered include a visit to Port City Colombo, South Asia's brand new, up and coming investment hub. Exclusive events such as the VIP Golf Tournament will give buyers a chance to take a refreshing break for an afternoon of friendly competition, while the insightful Story Corners will feature several industry leaders and professionals from around the globe who are excited to share their experiences and knowledge.

As FACETS Sri Lanka enters its 31st year, the upcoming exhibition is sure to be an immersive and insightful experience for its visitors. By far the most highly anticipated event for the Sri Lankan industry, there is no doubt that the show will bring together visitors from across the globe to celebrate and honour the beauty, diversity and unmatched quality of Sri Lanka's treasures.
